Personal data of a particular and/or sensitive nature we process

Please note that the garnering of details, through our web site and/or service, concerning individuals under the age of 16 who visit our web site without the express consent of their parent(s) or guardian(s) does not form part of our organisation's object. Then again we have no way of ensuring that no-one under the age of 16 accesses our web site without parental consent. We would therefore advise all parents (guardians) to monitor their children's (wards') on-line activities in order to prevent personal details concerning under-16s being collected without the requisite parental (guardian) consent. We would moreover invite anyone who believes that we have collected personal data concerning a particular minor without said minor's parent(s) or guardian(s) having consented to get in touch with us by filling in his or her e-mail address, so that we can remove the relevant information.

Our purpose and reason for processing personal data pertaining to yourself

Orange Jets processes particular personal data relating to you for the following purposes:

- in order to be able to get in touch with you, by telephone or e-mail, where our service provision renders this necessary;
- in order for us properly to provide you with the services for which you have engaged us;
- in order for us to complete the flight booking(s) and related services you have asked us to perform;
- Orange Jets will additionally process personal data where prevailing legislation so insists, such as information for compulsory inclusion in our organisation's tax returns.

Automated decision-making

Orange Jets does not use automated processing in its decision-making concerning matters that could (significantly) affect private individuals.

Duration of personal data storage

Orange Jets will prolong the storage of your personal data beyond the term needed in order to realise the objectives for which it has collected the relevant details.

We adhere to the following storage terms for personal data: Ten (10) years.

Sharing personal data with third parties

Orange Jets will share (some of) the personal data pertaining to yourself with certain third parties where this is called for in order for us properly to perform the services for which you have engaged us and – where appropriate – in order for us to comply with our statutory obligations. We will conclude a processing agreement with any businesses we may involve in the processing of details concerning yourself, in order to ensure a uniform level of security and confidentiality where the relevant details are concerned. Responsibility for the relevant processing actions will continue to rest with Orange Jets. Please note that Orange Jets will only make your personal data available to other third parties on the strict condition that you should have granted us express permission for doing so.

Transfer of personal data to non-EU territories

Orange Jets will share (some of) the personal data pertaining to yourself with certain third parties where this is called for in order for us properly to perform the services for which you have engaged us. (Some of) These third parties may be located outside the European Union or make use of non-EU based servers. Data transfer to non-EU countries will be strictly contingent upon the relevant recipient country (countries) having vouched for security adequacy. It is implicit in your use of the services offered by Orange Jets that you are on board with this.
